

COWABUNGA BAY WATERPARK PARTNERS WITH POOL SAFE FOR ALL THEIR PRIVATE AND VIP CABANAS

TORONTO, ON February 6, 2018 - Pool Safe Inc. ("Pool Safe" or the "Company") (TSXV: POOL) is pleased to announce that it has signed a revenue share agreement with Cowabunga Bay, a premier Las Vegas based waterpark. Under the terms of the agreement, Pool Safe and Cowabunga Bay will enter into a three-year revenue share partnership for 51 PoolSafes.

As with all of the Company's revenue share agreements, the Company will fund the production of the PoolSafes and their subsequent delivery to Cowabunga Bay. In return, Cowabunga Bay will rent the PoolSafes to its customers, with 60% of the rental revenue allocated to the Company and the remaining 40% allocated to Cowabunga Bay.

"The water park industry is one of Pool Safe's three main sales verticals", said David Berger, CEO of Pool Safe. "Industry market-data suggests that one of the main attractions at a waterpark are luxury cabanas, which fall second to only tube slides in popularity. Our PoolSafe fits in perfectly with this new trend."

"Cowabunga Bay offers some of Nevada's most thrilling and one-of-a-kind water slides, endless rivers and beaches," said Shane Huish, Owner/General Manager at Cowabunga Bay. "The luxury, security and convenience of the PoolSafe product will enhance our guest's experience as they enjoy their time in our newly refurbished exclusive VIP, Standard and Lounge cabanas."

Waterparks first surfaced over 75 years ago, and the industry has seen significant growth throughout the last decade. In 2017 North America had over 1,000 waterparks and saw more than $550 million in new investments, according to Hotel & Leisure Advisors report: "2017 Waterpark Forecast: Continued Growth."
